 Assistant Secretary, Indian Affairs
 Assistant Secretary, Water and Science

From: Secretary

Subject: Interim Departmental Policy on Revised Statute 2477 Grant of Right-of-Way for Public Highways; Revocation of December 7, 1988 Policy

Revised Statute 2477, which provided that "[t]he right of way for the construction of highways over public lands, not reserved for public uses, is hereby granted," was repealed on October 21, 1976, by the Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA), 43 U.S.C. § 1701 et seq. FLPMA did not terminate valid rights-of-way established under R.S. 2477 prior to its repeal. The existence and extent of valid rights-of-way previously established pursuant to R.S. 2477 remains an issue in some places.

States or local governments asserting that R.S. 2477 rights-of-way exist on federal lands can in appropriate situations file a lawsuit in federal court seeking to establish the validity of that assertion. In the alternative or in advance of filing such a lawsuit, the Department of the Interior may also be asked to give its views on such assertions.

On December 7, 1988, Secretary Hodel signed a memorandum that discussed his policy for making determinations whether the Department would recognize claims for rights-of-way under R.S. 2477. That policy was not promulgated according to rulemaking procedures and is not a rule. In fact, because the Department has not been making such determinations in recent years, that policy has not been carried out for several years. The purpose of this memo is to revoke the 1988 policy and establish a revised policy for carrying out any determinations the Department might be called upon to make regarding R.S. 2477.

Background

At the request of Congress, the Department submitted a Report to Congress on R.S. 2477 in June 1993. In accordance with that Report's recommendations, the Department determined that regulations should be written for R.S. 2477, and a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking was published in 1994. 59 Fed. Reg. 39,216 (August 1, 1994). Thereafter, Congress attached a provision to the Department's appropriation for fiscal year 1996 that prohibited using funds appropriated by that statute for "developing, promulgating, and thereafter implementing a rule concerning rights-of-way under section 2477 of the Revised Statutes." Pub. L. 104-134, § 110, 110 Stat. 1321-177 (1996). The Department's appropriation for fiscal year 1997 permits the publication of final regulations but says they shall not take effect unless "expressly authorized by an Act of Congress subsequent to the date of enactment of this Act." Pub. L. 104-208, § 108, 110 Stat. 3009 (1996).

I addressed the issue of whether the Department should continue to make determinations regarding R.S. 2477 claims in my May 28, 1993, letter to Congress transmitting the Department's Report: "Until final rules are effective, I have instructed the Bureau of Land Management to defer any processing of R.S. 2477 assertions except in cases where there is a demonstrated, compelling, and immediate need to make such determinations." This instruction is still in effect.

Revised Policy on R.S. 2477 Rights-of-way Determinations

Those making claims of the existence of valid R.S. 2477 rights-of-way continue to have the option of seeking to establish the validity of their claims in court. Nevertheless, it is possible that the Department may be asked, in advance of final rules taking effect, to make such determinations on the basis that such a demonstrated, compelling, and immediate need is claimed to exist. If so, until final rules are published and take effect, determinations regarding R.S. 2477 rights-of-way will be made by the Secretary of the Interior, in consultation with the appropriate Interior agency, according to the following policy:

1. Claims. An entity wishing the Secretary or any agencies of the Department of the Interior to make a determination whether an R.S. 2477 right-of-way exists shall file a written request with the Interior agency having jurisdiction over the lands underlying the asserted right-of-way, along with an explanation of why there is a compelling and immediate need for such a determination. The request should be accompanied by documents and maps that the entity wishes the agency to consider in making its recommendation to the Secretary. If, based on the information provided, the agency does not believe a compelling and immediate need for the determination exists, it should without further examination recommend the Secretary defer processing until final rules are effective.
2. Withdrawals and Reservations. The agency shall consult the public land records maintained by the Bureau of Land Management to determine the status of the lands over which the claimed right-of-way passes. If such lands were withdrawn, reserved, or otherwise unavailable pursuant to R.S. 2477 at the time that the highway giving rise to the claim of an R.S. 2477 right-of-way was allegedly constructed and remained unavailable through October 21, 1976, the agency will recommend the Secretary deny the claim.
3. Construction. If the lands were not withdrawn, reserved, or otherwise unavailable pursuant to R.S. 2477, the agency shall examine all available documents and maps and perform an on-site examination to determine whether construction on the alleged right-of-way had occurred prior to the repeal of R.S. 2477 on October 21, 1976. If the agency determines that construction did not occur, the agency will recommend the Secretary deny the claim.

4. Highway. The agency shall evaluate whether the alleged right-of-way constitutes a highway. A highway is a thoroughfare used prior to October 21, 1976, by the public for the passage of vehicles carrying people or goods from place to place. If the agency determines that the alleged right-of-way does not constitute a highway, the agency will recommend the Secretary deny the claim.

5. Role of State Law. In making its recommendations, the agency shall apply state law in effect on October 21, 1976, to the extent that it is consistent with federal law. The agency will in no case recommend approval of claims that do not comply with the requirements of applicable state law.

6. Secretary's Determination. The agency will make recommendations on the above-described issues to the Secretary. The Secretary will approve or disapprove those recommendations.

The December 7, 1988 policy, including attachment 1, is hereby revoked.
